McKinley Presidential Library & Museum to Host Decade-Themed Dinner

Canton, Ohio... As part of “Project EAT!,” a year-long celebration of all things food in Stark County, the Fall Fundraiser at the McKinley Presidential Library & Museum will be a decade-themed progressive dinner called “Eating Your Way Through History” on Thursday September 26 at 6:00 PM. This event ties in with the new Keller Gallery exhibition Stark County Food: From Early Farming to Modern Meals.

Catered by Beuhler’s, “Eating Your Way Through History” will feature food stations throughout the history galleries on the second floor of the Museum. This fun evening will highlight signature foods from each decade of the 20th century, plus a few 19th century favorites. Entertainment will include decade-themed vintage video games and board games, as well as a playlist featuring the most popular hits of each decade. Guests are encouraged to come dressed in the fashions of their favorite decade.

Tickets are $30 per person, $25 for Museum members. The reservation deadline is September 19.

Sponsorship opportunities are available. Individuals or businesses who are interested in becoming a “Decade Sponsor” should contact Executive Director Kim Kenney at 330-455-7043 or director@mckinleymuseum.org. Sponsorship deadline in September 13.
