McKinley Presidential Library & Museum to Present Soup at Six: “The True Story of Thanksgiving”

Canton, Ohio... The next program in the popular Soup at Six lecture series at the McKinley Presidential Library & Museum will explore “The True Story of Thanksgiving” on November 14 at 6:00 PM. The program is part of Project EAT!, a countywide initiative that celebrates food in Stark County in 2019.

Presented by Executive Director Kim Kenney, this brand new program will explore what the 1621 harvest celebration was really like. Did they eat turkey and mashed potatoes? Who was there? How and when did Thanksgiving become a national holiday? What regional and ethnic traditions have influenced the traditional menu in the modern age?

The program is $20 and includes one of our signature soups, fresh baked bread, drinks, dessert, and some ballpark food. Reservations are required.

ABOUT “PROJECT EAT!”

Stark County has a rich food history starting with our agricultural roots and continuing into the present with urban and rural farming, field-to-fork restaurants and many other food-focused agencies. Project Eat! highlights the many great existing programs doing work in our community, while showcasing exciting new food-related events created throughout the Stark County area in 2019. Partners include the McKinley Presidential Library & Museum, Canton Museum of Art, Massillon Museum, First Ladies National Historic Site, Stark Fresh, Canton Food Tours, Palace Theater, Carpe Diem, Kent State Stark, Walsh University Food Design Institute, Visit Canton, and Arts in Stark. For a complete list of programs, visit www.ProjectEatStark.org.
