McKinley Presidential Library & Museum to Host Tea with the Curator: “I Thee Wed: A History of Bridal Fashions”

Canton, Ohio... On February 11 at 10:00 AM, Executive Director Kim Kenney will present her program “I Thee Wed: A History of Bridal Fashions” at the Tea with the Curator series at the McKinley Presidential Library & Museum.

Kenney will take a look back at the brides of yesteryear to see what they wore and why. The program explores when white became standard for wedding gowns, as well as how bridal fashion echoes popular fashion. Through vintage photographs and illustrations, guests will learn more about Civil War brides, Flapper brides, Queen Victoria, Princess Diana, and more

The program is $15 and includes tea/coffee and breakfast sweets. Pre-paid reservations are required. Please call 330-455-7043.
