McKinley Presidential Library & Museum to Host Members' Night

Canton, Ohio... On February 27 at from 6:00 to 8:00 PM, the McKinley Presidential Library & Museum will be open for its First Annual Members' Night. This event is open to Museum members only, but visitors will be able to purchase or renew their memberships that evening. There is no cost to attend the event.

All areas of the Museum will be open, including the Museum Shoppe, Hoover-Price Planetarium, and the new Keller Gallery wedding dress exhibition "Tying the Knot." Executive Director Kim Kenney will lead a behind-the-scenes tour. There will be open hearth cooking samples in the Cabin in the Street of Shops.

The Ramsayer Research Library will feature photographs of Canton, Ohio and beyond taken between 1907 and 1916. This rare collection of glass plate negatives was acquired in 1972, has been digitized and will be presented in a more intimate and informal way in the Ramsayer Research Library. Guests will be able to experience the construction of the McKinley Monument, see Cleveland Public Square before Terminal Tower was built, and more.

ABOUT THE MUSEUM

The McKinley Presidential Library & Museum is located at 800 McKinley Monument Dr NW in Canton.
