Wedding Dress Exhibition Extended at the McKinley Presidential Library & Museum
Keller Gallery Exhibition Schedule Updated

Canton, Ohio... The closing date for Tying the Knot, an exhibition in the Keller Gallery featuring more than 20 wedding dresses from the Museum's permanent collection dating from the 1880s to the 1980s, has been extended from May 31 to September 13. The McKinley Presidential Library & Museum will re-open to the public on June 16.

"We knew that many people did not get a chance to see this wonderful wedding dress exhibition before we shut down in mid-March," said Executive Director Kim Kenney. "We have rearranged our entire 2020 exhibition schedule to extend the closing date of Tying the Knot."

Norman Rockwell in the 1940s, a traveling exhibition that was originally scheduled for June-August 2020 has been rescheduled for 2022. Additionally, a 1970s retrospective exhibition planned for this fall has been moved to next fall, and was replaced by an exhibition called Colors!, which will feature artifacts from the Museum's permanent collection grouped by color.

ABOUT THE MUSEUM

The McKinley Presidential Library & Museum is located at 800 McKinley Monument Dr NW in Canton. The Keller Gallery is the Museum's temporary exhibition space and features a variety of topics each year. The Museum also includes the McKinley National Memorial, McKinley Gallery, Street of Shops, The Stark County Story, Discover World, and the Hoover-Price Planetarium. The Museum is open Tuesday – Saturday from 9:00 AM to 12:00 PM and 1:00 to 4:00. The Museum is closed Sunday and Monday.
