Science Saturdays Return at the McKinley Presidential Library & Museum with a “Monster Bash”

Canton, Ohio... The popular series Science Saturdays returns to the McKinley Presidential Library & Museum on October 10, with modifications to keep guests safe during the coronavirus pandemic. The theme is “Monster Bash.” It is free with paid admission to the Museum.

This workshop will be held on from 10:00 to 11:00 AM and again from 2:00 to 3:00 PM. Space is limited and registration is required. Participants can register at this link: <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/science-saturday-workshop-monster-bash-tickets-121530104815>

Informational booths and make and take craft booths will be set up throughout the Auditorium and Discover World to ensure safe social distancing. Learn how to track Bigfoot and what to do if vampires are near. Guests can step on Bigfoot's footprint and make an Egyptian cartouche.

This is a one-hour open-house style workshop. Masks must be worn at all times and social distancing at booths will be required. The booths will be deep cleaned between the morning and afternoon sessions.

ABOUT THE MUSEUM

The McKinley Presidential Library & Museum is located at 800 McKinley Monument Dr NW in Canton. The Keller Gallery is the Museum’s temporary exhibition space and features a variety of topics each year. The Museum also includes the McKinley National Memorial, McKinley Gallery, Street of Shops, The Stark County Story, Discover World, and the Hoover-Price Planetarium. The Museum is open Tuesday – Saturday from 9:00 AM to 12:00 PM and 1:00 to 4:00 PM. The Museum is closed Sunday and Monday.
