Planetarium Shows to Resume at the McKinley Presidential Library & Museum

Canton, Ohio... The Hoover-Price Planetarium at the McKinley Presidential Library & Museum will begin offering limited, socially distant planetarium shows on October 17, November 7, November 27, and November 28. Each show will be limited to 10 people. Tickets can be reserved in advance through the Museum's website at www.mckinleymuseum.org. Tickets are free with admission.

"Cosmic Kids" will be offered on those dates at 10:00 and 11:00 AM for ages 3 and up. This show is approximately 15 minutes and will include constellations, planets, a light show, and music. The Universe at Large will be show at 2:00 and 3:00 PM for ages 7 and up, and it will look at monthly highlights, the latest news from space, and a tour of the current night sky.

The following safety guidelines will be in place:

- Guests & presenter will be required to wear a mask.
- Guests will be seated 6 feet apart from other groups.
- Surfaces will be cleaned after each program.
- We will have a morning & afternoon rotation of seating arrangements, allowing us to clean every seat section after both the morning & afternoon shows.
- The planetarium is well ventilated.
