Leap into Science Workshop at the McKinley Presidential Library & Museum

Canton, Ohio... The McKinley Presidential Library and Museum will present a Leap into Science Workshop on light and shadows engineered by the Franklin Institute on Saturday July 24 and Thursday August 5 from 11:00 AM to 1:00 PM. This workshop will be available for children ages 3 and up and their families. It is free with paid admission to the museum.

This workshop will last 2 hours and be in open-house format. Children and families will explore the science of light and shadows through hands-on activities and a children's story, and have fun while learning to think like scientists.

ABOUT LEAP INTO SCIENCE

Leap into Science is a nationwide program that integrates open-ended science activities with children's books, designed for children ages 3-10 and their families. We empower educators to offer programs in community settings like libraries, museums, and out-of-school time programs to engage underserved audiences in accessible and familiar settings.

ABOUT THE MUSEUM

The McKinley Presidential Library & Museum is located at 800 McKinley Monument Dr NW in Canton. The Keller Gallery is the Museum's temporary exhibition space and features a variety of topics each year. The Museum also includes the McKinley National Memorial, McKinley Gallery, Street of Shops, The Stark County Story, Discover World, Ramsayer Research Library, and the Hoover-Price Planetarium. The Museum is open Tuesday – Saturday from 9:00 AM to 4:00 PM. The Museum is closed Sunday and Monday.
